Email Revenue Goes from $11,670 to $113,598 in 9 Months

/ Luxury Linen Brand

This brand came to us with no email marketing in place, looking to scale up their brand and build their entire customer lifecycle journey from scratch. They were nervous about getting started with an agency, however, so they only let us manage their email flows.

First Month Live

Within the first month of launch we were able to bring in a massive 25% of their revenue from just a new email popup and a few basic flows.

$11,670 (25%)

3 Months of TQLA

Now that they had their email marketing backbone built into their business they were confident it was time to start increasing their ad spend.

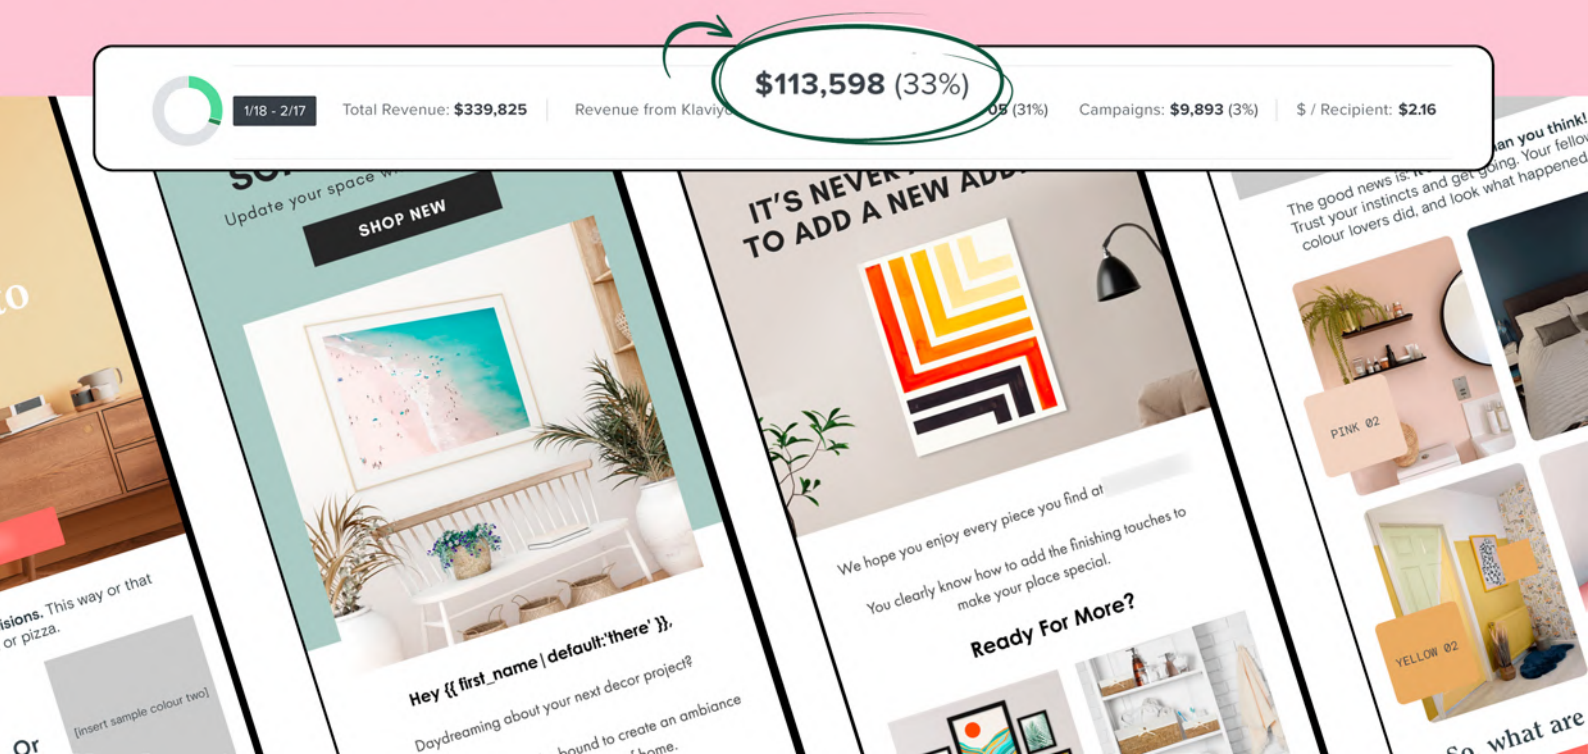

We continued to build their email marketing machine to keep up with the huge influx of new customers netting them 28% of their revenue from email marketing.

$22,883 (28%)

After 9 Months of TQLA

Scaling up their brand became easier and easier with the incredible customer lifecycle journey TQLA was able to build. Email marketing now accounts for over 33% of their sales and their store brings in nearly 10x the revenue they had when we started working together.

$113,598 (33%)

Reviving a “Dead” Email List into an Extra $115,759 in Revenue

/ High-End Women’s Fashion Brand

This brand came to us after working with another agency that didn’t take the time to understand what they really needed.

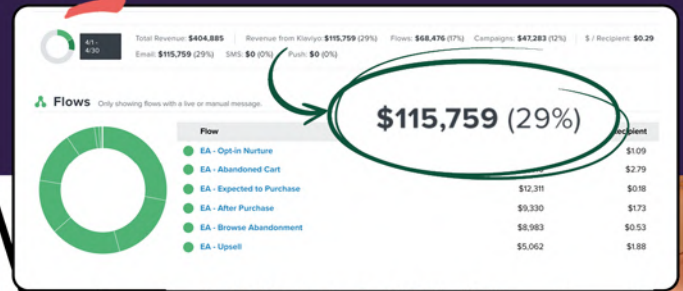

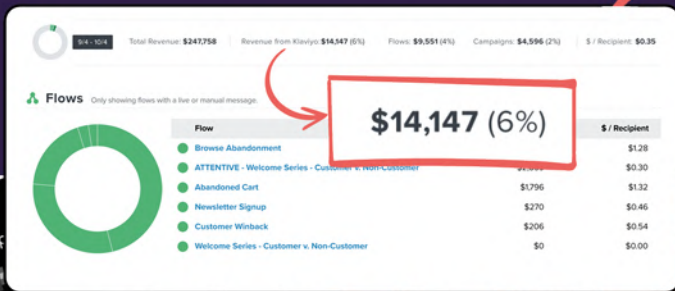

That’s when Tequila Sunrise came in!

Before TQLA

We did a deep dive into their audience and flow strategy, and developed a custom dose of Tequila Sunrise strategy that they needed to scale up their brand.

6 Months of Working Together

We were able to turn their old “dead” list into a consistent money printing machine as well as scaling up their automated flows into an entire customer lifecycle journey!

“Expensive” Brand Generates 12% More Sales with Email Marketing in 1 Month

/ Luxury Home Tech Brand

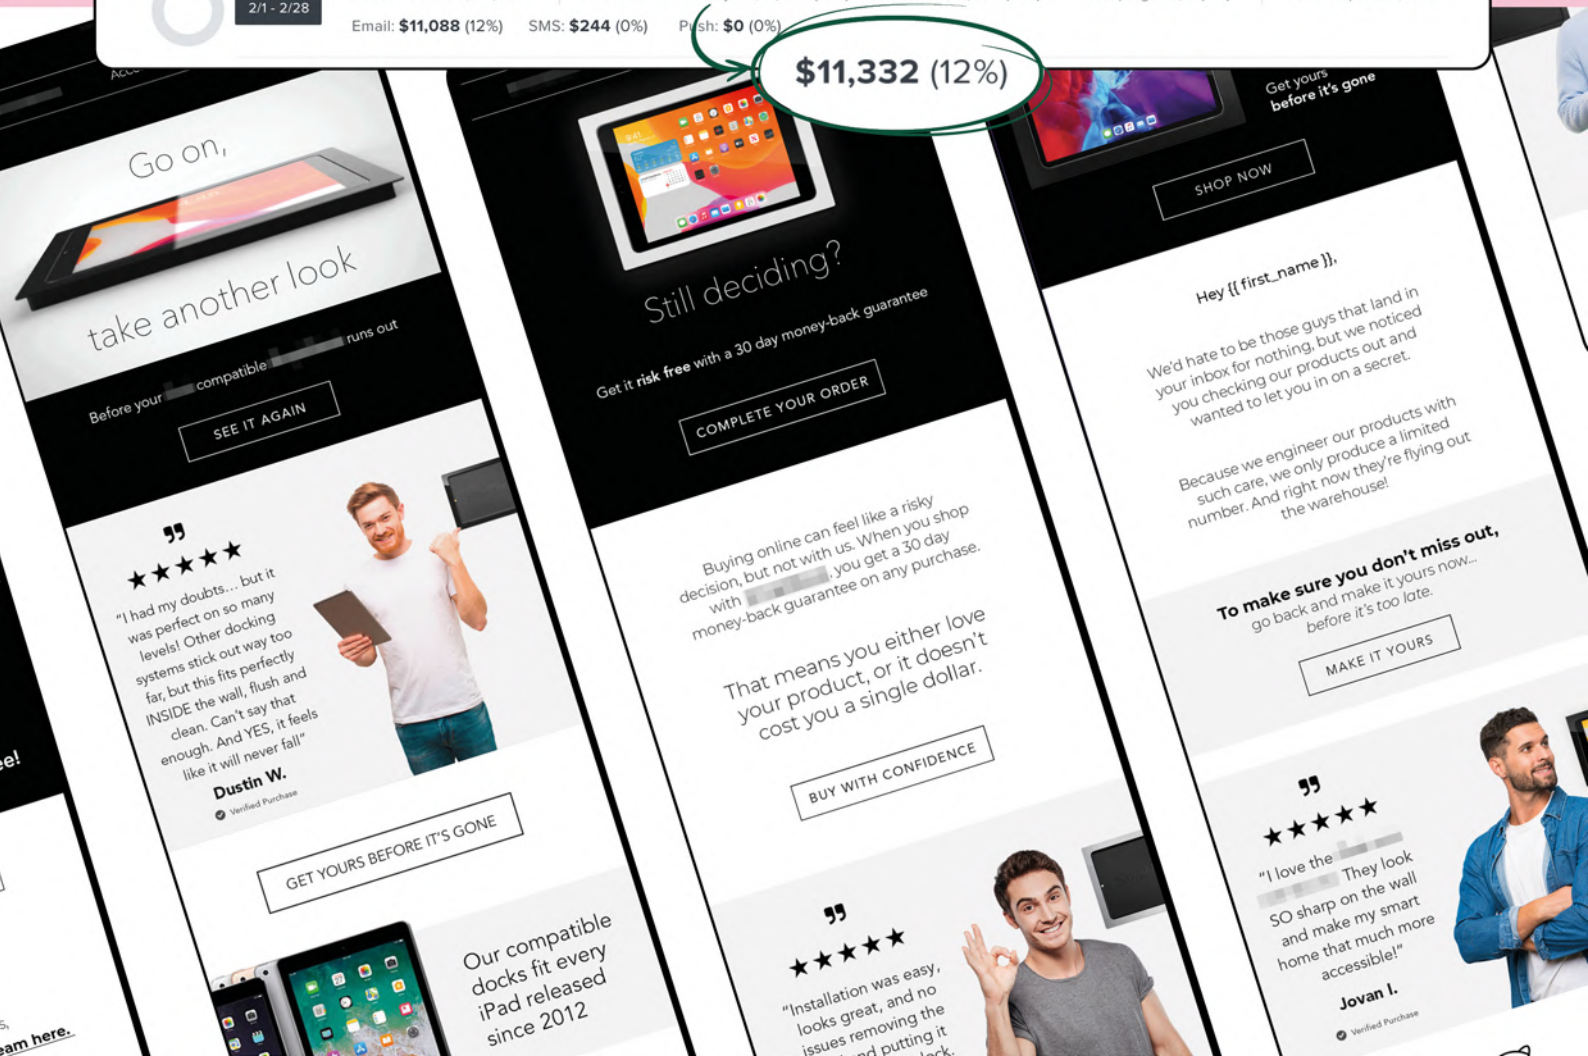

This brand came to us with no email marketing in place and was worried that due to their product being so expensive email marketing wouldn't work for them.

1 Month After Launch

Within just the first month we saw huge gains to their revenue, adding an extra 12% to their sales. As this client is a new brand working with TQLA we only have the first month's data.

But we are confident we can continue to grow them to 30%+ of their revenue coming from email marketing!

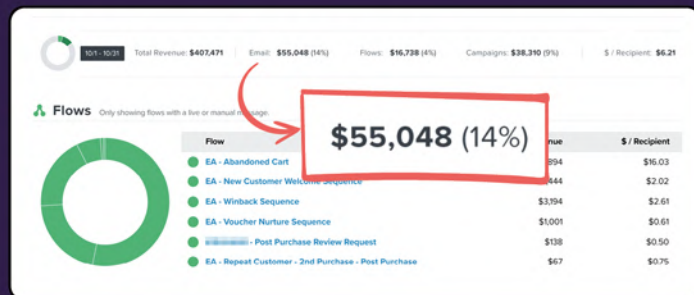

The Klaviyo Switch That Brought an Extra $55,000 Revenue in 6 Months

/ Luxury Glamping Accessories

This brand had been sending out occasional emails on Mailchimp but hadn't taken the time to build out their customer journey.

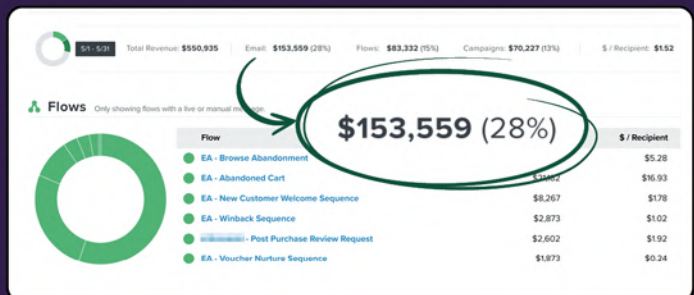

We transitioned them over to Klaviyo, and within the first month we were able to land them an extra $55,000 from email marketing.

First Month Results

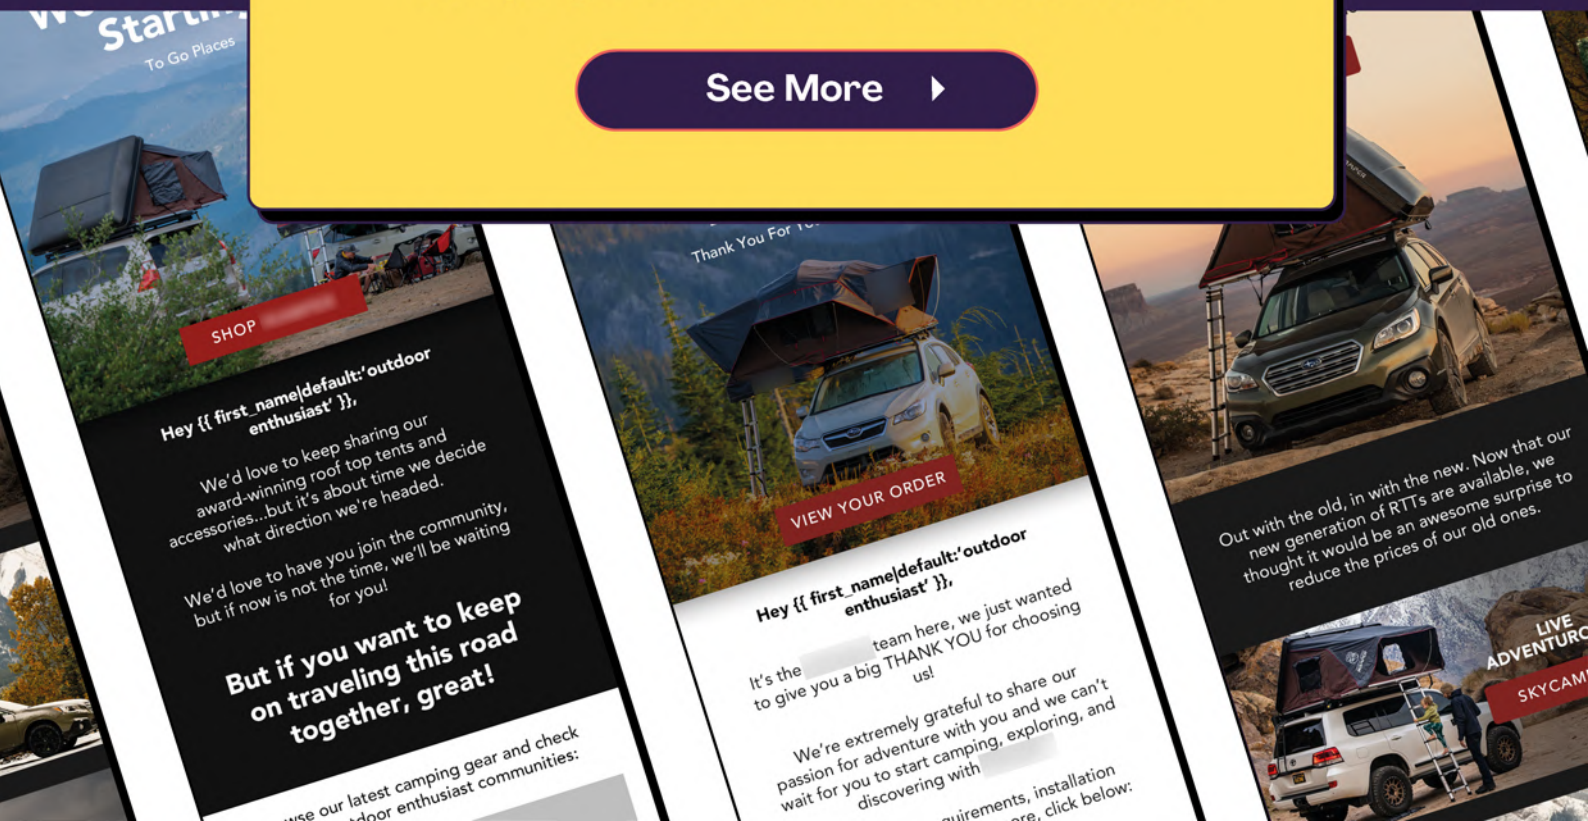

6 Month Results

After working with this brand over the next 6 months we were able to add an extra $150,000 onto their revenue with our new smart email flows!

Gone from 0% Klaviyo-Owned Revenue to 38% After 30 Days

/ High Ticket Home Aquarium Brand

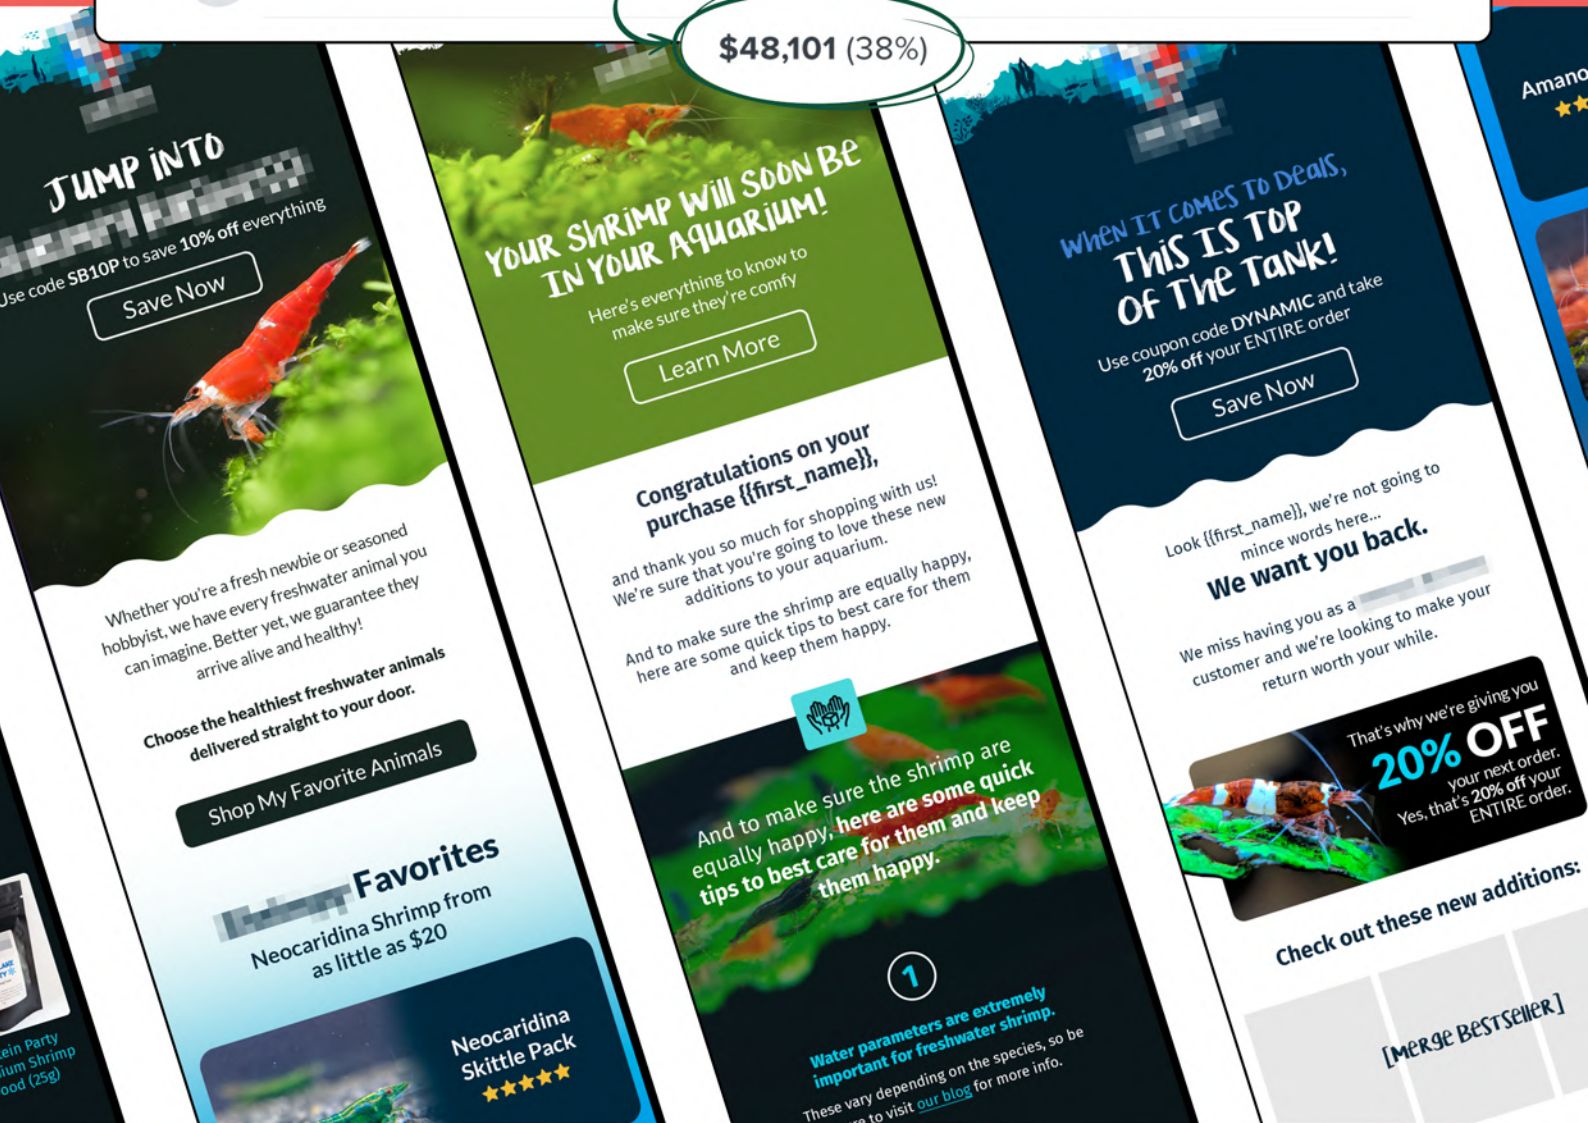

This client had built up a strong reputation in the home aquarium market, but unfortunately, they had not built a strong reputation with their email list!

1st Month Live with TQLA

Within the first month of going live, we were able to reactivate their dormant email list and kick off their customer lifecycle journey flows.

The results were an extra $48,000 in revenue from the first month of working together.

See what our clients had to say about us!

“My email marketing was non-existent... They took the time to understand my brand and write emails that actually made a big difference for my brand”

- Alicia Garcia
Lush Party Studios

“We’re a 7 figure per month ecommerce store... Email AllStars helped us generate an extra couple hundred thousand dollars per month with email marketing”

- Helen & Dylan
